DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In all the claims, the term "characterized" is not clearly open or closed ended. The more common "comprising" is suggested for open ended claims. Claim 1 is indefinite in that the term "one or several tongues does not clearly set for the metes and bounds of the claim. Further in this regard, several antecedence issues are created by this terminology, e.g. "each tongue" lacks antecedent basis. Clarification is required. Claim 2 lacks antecedence for "said locking means". Claim 9 lacks antecedence for "said longitudinally acting device".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 and 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Giurton et al. Note that the position of the tongues 16,18 in Figure 4a when the male part is inserted is considered the biased first position, and the second position is when the acting means, 20, 22, act on the pivots 26, 28 to release the male part.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4, 5, 9 and 10 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
